HAZEL GREEN, KY.,
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1885.
LOCAL NEWS.

Walter C. Daniel, of Maytown, is running the Hazel Green mill this week.

Caskey & Pieratt, of this place, sold Wm. Lusk a car load of last week.

Buy your bacon, mutton and beef of Caskey & Pieratt. Spot cash to one and all.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

The proprietor of Fields' circus was in town last Saturday riding the same kind of an animal that Baalam rode through Jerusalem.

We hear that R. A. Childers, of Maytown, Ky., has just received a new stock of goods, and is selling them straight through at half-price.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

A fancy pair on calves of the market here last Wednesday brought $37.50, which goes to show that good stock in good condition will always bring its price.

Uncle Harry Swango is expecting several boarders in a few days, who will come to spend the summer and drink the celebrated Swango water for their health.

Henry L. Godsey has gone to Montgomery with stock. On the trip he is accompanied by Jimmie Brown and Jimmie Ross, who intend to sell him through sale.

THE HERALD this week contains no spring poetry, but is composed largely of spring prose. We hope, however, it may not prove too prosaic for our poetical friends.

Jimmie Swango, of this place, was lately poisoned about the face with poison oak one day last week. His face is badly swollen now but he is out and about and will be all right in a few days.

During services at the Methodist church here last Sunday a sow entered the sanctuary and was proceeding down the aisle when she was "suddenly off" and a hurried exit. Moral—Enclose your house with a good fence.

Several of our enterprising citizens have at last worked up nerve enough to erect a high school building, and on Monday gave an order for 40,000 feet of lumber for the same, which will be cut in the next 10 days. The building will be finished September 1st.

Hon. J. M. Kish, Judge G. B. Swango, W. O. Mize, J. T. Day and Samuel Swango, were elected trustees of the high school at this place on Monday, in person of the provisions of the charter of the institution, and will push things, as they are progressive men.

Geo. B. Harper, the affable, courteous, accommodating, clever and good-looking superintendent of the Kentucky and South Atlantic railway will arrive in Hazel Green on the 24th inst., with a party of about 25, who come for the benefit of the water of Swango Spring.

Fifty per cent has been added to insurance policies at Harrodsburg, on account of the inefficiency of the fire company. In this connection we would suggest that some protection be organized here for the suppression of the fiery flames in case of accident. Extinguishers could be bought at low figures, and might be the means of saving much property.

The trustees of this school district on Monday last secured the services of Mrs. M. A. Ezel, of Ezel, as teacher of the public school at this place, which is indeed a wise course, as she is perhaps the best teacher in Eastern Kentucky. Under her direction, we do not doubt but the young idea may be taught to shoot with accuracy and precision.

Rev. J. K. Hittner, of Georgetown, evangelist of the West Lexington Presbytery, held several days' service at this place, commencing last Saturday night, and considerable interest has been manifested. On Sunday last he administered the sacrament, members of all churches present, and the meeting closed last night. Mr. Hittner also held a meeting at Jackson with several additions to the church.

By using the water of the celebrated Swango spring, Godsey's iron spring, and Lucy's magnesia spring, invalid visitors will soon spring into new life. Besides, Uncle Harry Swango has downy spring water for his boarders. Hon. D. S. Godsey, the police proprietor of the Day house, and mine host, Fegat, of the Pieratt house, have spring mattresses, and they all have spring chickens, spring peas and spring lamb.

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD goes out this week enlarged to 28 columns, with the columns lengthened two inches each, making an increase of 6 1/2 columns more reading than we before furnished, which at the price, $1 a year, in advance, is certainly the cheapest paper in the country. But we do not propose to stop here. If the citizens show a disposition to give us proper support, we can give them a paper just twice the present size—56 columns instead of 28. So go to work, you who wish to see a paper prosper in your midst, and each of you get another subscriber. You can do so if you but try, there is no man in the mountains too poor to give $1.00 a year for his home paper.

Rev. W. B. Cooper, of Jackson, spent Thursday night last in Hazel Green, the guest of Rev. E. P. Mize. Mr. Cooper was en route home from Lexington, whither he had been to purchase the doors, sash, blinds, etc., for the new Presbyterian church at that place. He informed us that he called on Bush & Son, whose advertisement appears in our paper, to get them to do the work. That firm being too busy to fill the order, they turned it over to a competing firm, also of Lexington. A clear case of injustice, and we are glad to hear that the man who raised the money among the good people of Lexington to pay for it, M. P. Lancaster, of that place, giving a liberal sum.

THE GRAND TOTAL OF $1,857.95.

Is What the Sales at Hazel Green on last Wednesday Amounted to.

Those who are "throwing cold water" on the Hazel Green stock-sales are respectfully requested to examine carefully the following prices and compare them with our first sale. We think they will see that we are gaining ground every day. In this connection it would be proper, also, to say that these sales are for the benefit of the people, and not of any individual, clique, ring or clan. The post of this entire section see and know they have been benefited and will be benefited so long as they bring stock here to sell, but if they would listen to the tongue of calumny or slander prompted by self-interest, they must be the losers. All who sell here get good prices, the talk of dealers to the contrary notwithstanding. Our first sale aggregated $1,246.70 and our last one $1,857.95, an improvement of $611.25.

To those having the establishment of the sales at this place, we would prescribe this remedy: Sell your stock at once, and without the side-dishes of slur and slander. Hazel Green is the best market and will continue to grow better every month. No rubbing salt in the wound. Read the figures: John B. Phipps to Wm. McCrackin, 1 horse, $118.00

A Wonderful Spring.
A. Porter Lacy, of this place, last week found a spring on the surface of the earth, that is just now creating great excitement in Hazel Green. He had noticed for a long time that water oozed up through the ground at a certain point, and thinking he might dig and discover its source and thereby get an abundance of stock-water, the field being used as a pasture, he dug down through the clay and sand, and in about 6 feet, when he discovered leaves and trash, which struck him as being very remarkable. Removing them he discovered a small, clear basin about 14 inches square, which is said to be a fine specimen. The marks of the instrument with which it was dug are plainly visible. The question is, what is the spring? Local history of the place goes back 100 years, and such a thing as a spring was never known in the locality. The water supply to the basin is very meager, and the opinion prevails that it must have been dug by some prehistoric race to secure the water for its medicinal virtues. The water has a very pleasant taste, and it will be a boon for Hazel Green. We have forwarded a bottle of it to Prof. Robt. Peter, state analytical chemist, to obtain his analysis of it, and will then send it to our readers. Mr. Lacy has concluded to leave the spring just as he found it, that visitors to Hazel Green may see it, and give their theory as to what it is. We think it could not have been dug less than 500 years ago, because the history of the surroundings go back 100, and those people say that there were trees over the spot at least 100 years growth. Will some one solve the problem for us?

Personal Paragraphs.
Wm. Vincil, of Campton, was in town on Saturday last.
James C. Swango, of Maytown, was in town last Sunday.
Mrs. Mary Nickell, of Ezel, is visiting in Hazel Green this week.
Judge G. B. Swango leaves this morning for Hot Springs, Arkansas.
Rev. W. L. Stamper, Maytown, paid our town a short visit last Monday.
J. B. Corde and wife are visiting friends and relatives in Breathitt county.

Jonathan Childers, who has been attending school at Jeffersonville, Ind., passed through town Monday en route to Frozen, his home.
Miss Mary Linkous, who has been a visitor to the family of W. J. Wallace, on Quicksand, left for Swango spring, was quite ill for several days last week. Our informant stated yesterday, however, that she was improving.

Mrs. S. S. Combs, Mrs. C. M. Hanks, of Campton; Mrs. A. M. Swango, of Stillwater; Mrs. J. B. Corde, of Maytown; Mrs. P. N. Day, Mrs. A. B. Swango and Mrs. Markham, of Hazel Green, paid THE HERALD office a pleasant visit last week.

Floyd Day and Nelson Candler have gone to Quicksand on a two weeks business trip. "Nance" has promised to fetch us a piece in the shape of about 20 subscribers. Floyd and Nance are both quite modest, but to the girls up there we can recommend them as all right.

Capt. R. E. Roberts, representing Carter Bros. & Co., of Louisville, and his son, Shelby, were in town this week. The captain is a daisy drummer, and is so well liked that he will take a mighty good man to down him in securing trade. On his present tour he sold very large bills here, and we commend him to the merchants of the mountains.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for corns, neuralgia, pains in the back and side, etc., ever produced. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

WOLFE COUNTY.
STILLWATER, JUNE 8.
Wheat is almost an entire failure in this immediate vicinity.

Born.—To the wife of Sanford Wells, a boy—Grover Cleaveland, of course, a look flourishing since the recent rains.

Dr. Jas. F. Tutt, who has been ill for some time, is rapidly recovering to the delight of his many friends.

Jacob Wireman left here some time since, saying that he was going to Indian Territory. May success attend him.

There seems to be a great demand for teachers in this county. Can THE HERALD refer us to anyone who would teach?

Tandy Taylor, one of Stillwater's best citizens, who has had a long and serious illness, died a few days since. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

Prof. A. F. Byrd is visiting the family of his father, A. C. Byrd, on the creek. He will commence a 10 months school at Campton in July, in connection with which he will teach the free school.

Mr. Meyers, formerly a resident of Big Branch, a tributary of Red river, has located near John M. Rose's store. Mr. Meyers, though poor, is an honorable man, and we gladly welcome him to our midst.

Miss Jane Childers, of Harrison county, Ky., has been visiting her relatives in this vicinity. Miss Childers is a young lady of intelligence, and by her kindness, sociability and lady-like deportment, makes friends wherever she goes.

Married.—Nobility lately. Want to marry—A. H. Swango, F. K. Tutt and Campton Rose, all of whom are nice young men and would make kind husbands. Girls, they mean business. Don't want to marry—G. B. Stamper, J. J. Tutt and "me."

Prof. J. T. Tutt has been employed to teach the Bethel school. Mr. Tutt is a young man, of good morals, a good scholar, and will teach them a good school if they will all lay aside prejudice, send to school and give him a chance.

Andrew Taylor and Rose Ann Madden, on account of some difference arising concerning one of their illegitimate offspring, had a rather confused quarrel during which Rose Ann, being considerably provoked, threw a stone at Taylor, striking him (as I learn) below the left eye, inflicting a slight wound. Some persons, being near by at the time, interposed, and thus terminated the fuss.

LACY CREEK, JUNE 15.
Rev. J. T. Pieratt and wife were visiting friends here last week.

Ezekiel McClure, of Grassy creek, was visiting relatives in this section last Saturday.

Miss Alice Combs, of Campton, who has been visiting her grandfather, J. D. Rose, has returned home.

James A. Lacy and wife and Miss Willie Samples, of Ezel, have been visiting relatives and friends here last week.

J. M. Harper, of this creek, has a cow that gives 8 gallons of milk per day. "On The Wing" trot out your next best milker.

G. H. Lacy, A. P. Lacy and R. N. Rose, trustees of the Lacy creek school, have secured the services of Prof. J. Z. Hauser, of Grassy creek, to teach the present term. Mr. Hauser is a model man, and we presume the school will be a decided success.

A difficulty occurred here Wednesday between John Rose, of Graham, and a man during which attempts were made to inflict serious injuries, but were prevented. The cause of the trouble was some whipping which was done on a horse, and the man, at the time, in which Rose was accused of being a participant.

GILLMORE, JUNE 12.
Corn is looking well. The weather has been favorable for the farmer to kill weeds, during the past 10 days.

Brother Davis will preach at this place the 3rd Sunday in August and Saturday before, instead of the 5th Sunday, as stated in my last letter.

Mr. James Williams, of Quicksand, Breathitt county, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jas. Ely, who is, as we stated in our letter of last week, very low with pneumonia. Her father has been about camp, all hope of her recovery. She has been and is closely attended by Drs. R. B. Gardner and J. B. Taulbee, who are doing all they can to raise her. While there is hope there is life.

MORGAN COUNTY.
GRASSY CREEK, JUNE 7.
People in this section are working their corn the second time, when at present looks very fine.

S. W. Havens sold a very fine 2-year-old male, supposed to have been killed by lightning.

Western Peyton and wife, of Montgomery county, have been visiting relatives at this place the past week.

Miss Jennie Yocum has a quilt which she says contains 3333 pieces, which she put together with her own hands.

Say, you Rothwell correspondent, what has become of you? Is it your wheeler-dealer? That is consuming your time, or what is it? Let us hear from you at once.

Mrs. S. J. McGuire and Miss Martha McGuire were visiting relatives near this place last week. Miss Martha is an intelligent girl and we would like to see her visit us, but were sorry to learn that when she left one of our young bloods went with her; as his presence is needed in the corn-field. Come back, Jo.

J. L. Smock, representing the house of Davis, Mallory & Co., of Louisville, Ky., was in our midst last week. An inspection of the samples he carries will convince anyone that he represents a first-class house. He informed us that he was making good sales, and that collections were better than he had anticipated, which speaks well for our county.

Johnson Oakly & Co. have been in this vicinity cutting and peeling timber for the Licking River market.

Mr. Oakly informed us that the company had timber enough for 1,000 logs.

Notice in last week's HERALD that there has been a matrimonial association formed by the young gentlemen of Maytown and vicinity, in which the following resolution was passed: Resolved, "That we will not slight an offer coming from the fair sex, that has for its object consubstantial bliss."

I am of the opinion that they will forever keep that resolution, from the fact they will never have an opportunity to violate it. Resolution 4th reads: "That to any young lady who shall address any of them promptly, respectfully and obediently, once, twice and until tomorrow, &c." From what I have heard from the young ladies of that vicinity, the young gentlemen of that association will wait until tomorrow before they are addressed by any of the fair sex.

ON THE WING.
MAYTOWN, JUNE 15.
Dr. B. F. Dixon is, we are sorry to say, quite ill.

May & Swango are receiving a large supply of new goods.

Marshall W. T. Day and Rev. W. L. Stamper have returned from Mt. Sterling.

J. F. Sexton, Jordan Wells and Archibald Day have been off to Licking river on a fishing expedition.

E. B. May and family are off on a visit to J. J. Swannick, of Bath county. May will return in a few days, and his wife will spend the summer with her father.

Thos. M. Cannoy has gone to Spencer, Montgomery county, to spend 2 or 3 weeks, with his brother, J. J. Cannoy. The fair ones of the town regret his absence. Tom is a favorite with all at this place.

Prof. A. F. Byrd, formerly principal of the Campton high school, will deliver a lecture at Maytown, on Friday night before the 4th Sunday in this month, on "Education, or the reasons why we should educate." Let all turn out and hear the professor.

A few Sabbath school teachers at Sandfield, elected by G. W. Cox, superintendent; A. P. Nickell, assistant superintendent; J. T. Catron, secretary, and R. McNabb, treasurer and librarian. The school has started off under favorable auspices.

BREATHITT COUNTY.
FROZEN CREEK, JUNE 13.
Farmers are very busy working in their corn.

We have a good prospect for plenty of fruit in this section.

Kelly B. Day, of Hazel Green, spent several days with us, visiting friends and relatives. He also stayed a few days in Day Bros' store.

Bart Tyler is running Day Bros' store at this place, and he seems to be doing well. He has been here for one year and has gained a reputation as a good miller.

We hear of some trouble in some parts of our county over the school election. We are told that in one district they had a regular knock-down-and-draw, at one little woman came at one of the men with her fists raised, and gave him a lick in the side of his head with her fist. Such a thing was never seen before—women, children and men all fighting.

Signs and Wonders.
When will signs and wonders cease? Not till the destroying angel shall cut the thread of time, and the heavens be rolled together as a scroll. Not a day passes but we see good and bad signs, as the following will show:

It's a good sign to have a man enter your office with a friendly greeting: Here's $1 to pay for the 1st of July. It's a bad sign to hear a man say "I am too poor to take a paper." Ten to one he carries home a jug of "red eye" that costs him a dollar.

It's a good sign to see a man do a deed of charity to his fellowman. It's a bad sign to hear him boasting of it.

It's a good sign to see the color of health in a man's face. It's a bad sign to see it all concentrated in his nose.

It's a good sign to see an honest man wearing old clothes. It's a bad sign to see folks filling holes in their windows.

It's a good sign to see a man wipe perspiration from his brow. It's a bad sign to see him wipe his mouth as he comes out of a saloon.

It's a good sign to see a lady dressed with taste and neatness. It's a bad sign to see her husband sued for her feathers and foolery, gauds and jewelry.

It's a good sign to see a man or lady advertise in THE HERALD. It would be a bad sign to see the sheriff do their advertising for them.

Take Your County Paper.
[Louisville Post.]
The county paper is nearer to the people than the city paper; it speaks of home affairs; it contains the news of home interest; it makes known home wants and introduces to the public, home men, and their capacity for useful work. It deserves the support of every citizen, and the public spirited men of the section in which it circulates. There is no agency among men capable of doing so much for the community as well as a well edited and neatly printed paper. The state itself should favor the county newspapers as much as it can without detriment to the public interests, and every man, interested in any extent in the advancement of the county and section in which it is published, should aid the county paper in every way possible and do so on the ground of public interest. No paper can do a paper and please all men. If he attempts so foolish a thing, he will prove a failure, and for this reason every editor must be allowed to cherish and forward to religious purposes, to give publicity to the ideas concerning public affairs. No county ever lost a dime, and hundreds of them have been greatly advanced, by heartily supporting a paper.

[Lexington Gazette.]
We have heard a great deal about the kidneys and other disorders of Breathitt county, but there is a quiet but earnest work for the reformation and civilization of those people going on of which the general public knows but little, which in time will produce results of the most gratifying nature. Meeting our old friend, Rev. Wm. Cooper, who is laboring as a missionary in connection with the Presbyterian church in that interesting field, we learned of these things, and greatly interested us. He says that Breathitt is the largest county in the state of Kentucky, and that there is not a building in the county devoted to religious purposes. To supply this great need, Mr. Cooper is now engaged in an effort to build a church, of which the foundation is laid and the lumber obtained, and he hopes by the aid of Christian people in more favored localities, to complete the work by winter.

The Southern Bivouac, for June, has been received. It is a truly southern magazine, filled with choice reading throughout. The current number contains among 15 other well-written articles, "Gen. Morgan's Ezel," "The H. O. Chaney," and "The man who knew the hero, either in private life or as the gallant soldier, it will prove a rare treat. The price is $2 a year, in advance. Subscriptions will be received at this office forwarded, or the magazine will be clubbed with THE HERALD at $2.50 for both. This magazine, as its name indicates, is southern, and every southern man who has the welfare of his country's literature at heart should subscribe for it. Send in your subscription.

Kemp, the irrepressible, who carries the mail between here and West Liberty, hove in sight Monday last yelling out "Hurrah for Grover Cleveland, Will Press Taft, Farish Arnett, W. W. Cox, Walter Chubb and the democratic party." He is destined to be a "star route" mail contractor under the present administration, if they both live long (enough) and prosper, and while he has the terrible habit of giving away a carrier "black eye" on promissory. He says the mail service can't get along without him.

Swango Springs.

The Water of Life for Afflicted Humanity.

IRON IS KING.
These springs are located three-quarters of a mile from the beautiful town of Hazel Green. The water contains a larger percentage of iron than any other water known, hence it is the most valuable in the cure of disease—used internally or externally.

Among the many diseases which flesh is heir to, and for which this wonderful water is known to be a positive and permanent cure, are the following:

CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, SKIN DISEASES, SCROFULA, CATARRH, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, NERVOUSNESS, &c.

We append a few of the hundreds of testimonials which have been tendered as to the efficacy of this water in disease.

One lady writes: "I am so thankful to the Great Giver of all Blessings that I cried Swango Springs. Freely do I give all the time and money spent there for the health and strength I now enjoy."

A gentleman of Illinois says: "I think the water of Swango Springs did me more good than all the nostrums I have ever tried. I will certainly be with you again next spring."

RESPECTFULLY, R. T. Smith, G. Trimble, P. L. Reese, Mt. Sterling, Ky.; F. M. Hinkle, Mrs. F. M. Hinkle, Wm. Clarke, Plum Lick, Ky.

A large hotel is now being built, which will afford ample accommodation to visitors. For further information in regard to board, &c., address HARRISON SWANGO, or this office, Hazel Green, Ky.
